THE ALEXANDRA PALACE
AND MUSWELL HILL ESTATE TONTINE.

TO TERMINATE ON THE 30TH JUNE, 1886.

TRUSTEES.

JOHN CLUTTON, Esq., Whitehall Place.
JOHN HACKBLOCK, Esq., Bolton Gardens.
JOHN HORATIO LLOYD, Esq., Inner Temple.

THE Palace is a splendid, capacious, and substantial structure, and the Estate comprises nearly 500 acres of beautiful freehold land within a radius of six miles only from Charing Cross.

The object of the Tontine is to complete the purchase and improve the property, and thus to provide for all classes of the inhabitants of the metropolis, and especially of its northern and eastern portions and suburbs, and for the many thousands of country excursionists, a Grand Institution of healthful recreation and elevating instruction, which will combine the solid advantages of the South Kensington Museum and Schools of Art with the lighter pleasures and pastimes of the Crystal Palace at Sydenham, thus giving effect to the large and enlightened views of the late Prince Consort.

The main advantages of this undertaking may be said to be as follows:—

The holder of a Tontine Certificate for ONE GUINEA or upwards, will become entitled to—

A share in the realisation of the estate in 1886, when the net proceeds must be of enormous value.

Free admissions in the meantime, on certain occasions.

A share in the Art Unions (proposed to be held once in every three years), when the prizes will be considerable.

To be reimbursed 20s. for each Guinea paid in the event of the Life nominated, and upon which the Tontine privilege depends, not surviving till the 30th June, 1886.

Thus the Tontine (besides its other great privileges) presents the opportunity of making, at a very slight cost, an ample endowment for children, or of ensuring a very large return for the capital invested.

It being a "Trust," Subscribers incur NO LIABILITY, and must benefit.

If no issue is made, the Subscriptions will be returned in full.

For further particulars, see Detailed Prospectus.

Admissions to view the Palace can be obtained at the Offices of the Company, 5 and 6, Great Winchester Street Buildings, E.C.

THOS. DIXON, Secretary.

Clergy Orphan Schools.

Boys' School, St. Thomas's Hill, Canterbury.
Girls' School, St. John's Wood, London.

The Committee earnestly APPEAL for SUPPORT from the members of the Church of England for these Schools, in which the orphans of the poorer clergy receive the best education, and are clothed and maintained gratuitously.

2,170 children have been admitted into them since their foundation, and there are 105 in them at present.

The children are carefully trained according to the teaching of the Church of England, and the utmost pains are taken to make vital religion the groundwork of their education.

The late Archbishop of Canterbury, when presiding at the examination of the Girls' School, said, "His affections were engaged in the working of the Institution. To witness the progress of these dear children was a sight to gladden one's heart and to rejoice one's soul."

If the number of orphans could be increased by nine, the schools would be full.

Candidates should be nominated without delay for the November election, when 20 children will be admitted.

An annual subscription of £5 12s., or a life donation of £10 10s., entitles to a vote at each half-yearly election.

Subscriptions may be paid to the Rev. Dr. CURREY, Treasurer, at the Charterhouse, E.C.; or to

J. RUSSELL STOCK, M.A., Secretary.
Bankers—Messrs. DRUMMOND.

Office: 63, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

Cancer Hospital, London and

BROMPTON.—The late ARCHBISHOP of CANTERBURY, in a Sermon preached by His Grace on behalf of this Hospital, said:—

"There is no disease more pitiable than that to which this Institution is specially devoted. From the first symptoms of attack one long course has commonly been prognosticated—a fearful looking for of a lingering progress towards a death of anguish. Could the greatness of the suffering be laid before you—could you be shown its severity so as to see it in its true proportions and natural colours, no one endowed with the feelings of humanity could resist the spectacle: they would think all they possessed a trifling sacrifice if, at such a price, they could mitigate such misery; and yet they know that those sufferings exist as surely as if they were spread before their eyes. This, therefore, is a case in which I may justly ask your liberal contributions, that the relief afforded by this Hospital may more nearly approach the amount of misery it endeavours to remove."

Treasurer—GEO. T. HERTSLET, Esq., Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace.

Bankers—Messrs. COUTTS & CO., Strand.
Office: 167, Piccadilly (opposite to Bond Street).

The Land and Labour of INDIA. A Review. By COLONEL W. NASSAU LEES, LL.D."In his powerful criticisms of the plans for the redemption of the land-tax in India, Mr. Nassau Lees, who is one of the most accomplished Europeans in the Dialects and Ancient Law of Hindustan, ardently contends against an alienation of public property which would deprive the Government of a revenue collected with ease, and would naturally lead us in no short time into difficulties exactly similar to those we have to contend with in Ireland. This volume is the most valuable that has been for a long time published on a question that is in all its details inaccessible even to most Europeans in India, and on which English opinion is something worse than absolutely uninformed. It is full of inductive matter, and should be neglected by no one who takes any enlarged interest in our great dependency."—Westminster Review, July, 1869.

DER PARTHENON,

herausgegeben von ADOLF MICHAELIS. Text, Imp. 8vo., and Atlas, Folio. Price 30s.

The Parthenon—this richest and most complete work of ancient Greek Art, as far as regards its architecture and richness of sculpture, has never been treated in an exhaustive manner in any previous publication. The above work contains in its Atlas, for the first time, a comprehensive review of the architectural structure of this Temple, founded on the best accessible sources, being a complete collection of all the Sculptures existing either in the original or in casts, or even in drawings. All this material for a reconstruction of the edifice is supplemented by the Text, which embraces all the inscriptions and ancient documents having relation to it in ancient literature, and a notice of all that has been written in modern times affording material for its complete elucidation.
